Kelly McClung Kendrick Appointed to Assistant Vice President

Christiansburg, Virginia August 11, 2009 First Bank & Trust Company, a diversified financial services firm, announced today that Kelly Kendrick has been promoted to Assistant Vice President.

Kendrick has been employed with First Bank & Trust Company for two years. She recently completed the bank's management training program, and graduated from the Risk Management Association's Commercial Lending School at East Carolina University. Kendrick received her Bachelor of Science degree from Virginia Tech in 2006.

In her former position with First Bank & Trust, Kendrick served as Credit Analyst. She will continue many of her same duties including analyzing financial reports on commercial credits, and managing a commercial loan portfolio. "Kelly is a talented banking professional who is uniquely skilled at matching customer needs with banking products," stated James McAlister, Senior Regional Vice President. "She has already developed a loyal customer base, and is an asset to our growing team in Christiansburg."

Ms. Kendrick was recently married to Mike Kendrick, of Roanoke, Virginia. They both now reside in the New River Valley. She is actively involved with the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce, Women in Leadership and volunteers for the local Boys & Girls Club. She will resume her service in the New River Valley area. Her office is located at 150 Peppers Ferry Rd NE in Christiansburg.
